Director's Reports:

- Summer Reading program kicked off June 22nd and concluded August 3rd. It was a dinosaur theme with cracking and exploding dinosaur eggs, cross stitching, chalk murals, ceramic tiles, gid drawings and a few other fun crafts. A USA 250 year celebration was also included.
- Gather2Grow program provided 100 lunches for the Summer Reading program. Almost all lunches were distributed.
- Working on reorganizing craft corner after Summer Reading program.
- Lunch bunch will start back up in September
- Approximately 12,475 books have been cataloged for Biblionex.
- Roxanne is working on the back bathroom and books from the basement.
- Monthly Book Talk in July was on Look Again and August was on Snow Globe.

Old Business:

- Community Cupboard update – waiting on IRS to approve
- Summer Reading program ended August 3rd with an average of 39 kids, mostly teenagers. All grant money was used for the program.
- All desks that needed to be removed are gone, boxes in basement need to be broken down. We will look into getting 4-H and Honor Society kids to help with a basement clean up.
- Motion by Sarah N. to get a dumpster to clean up basement as part of library improvement, Sarah C. seconded – passed.
- Sarah N. to get quotes on 20- and 30-yard dumpsters.

New Business:
